Valley Community Healthcare CEO Brings Unique Perspective to Delivering Medical Services to Newly Insured and Underserved Populations
Paula Wilson Participates in ACG Panel “Innovators in Healthcare Delivery”

North Hollywood, CA---Paula Wilson, President and Chief Executive Officer of Valley Community Healthcare, a leading nonprofit community health center located in the San Fernando Valley will participate in a panel discussion “Innovators in Healthcare Delivery” sponsored by the Association of Corporate Growth (ACG) 101 Corridor. The meeting will take place 7am-9am, Wednesday, August 3, 2016, at Westlake Village Inn, 31943 Agoura Road, Westlake Village.

Wilson brings a humanistic perspective and unique understanding of the population most impacted by the 2014 passage of Affordable Care Act. She will address the creative ways Valley Community Healthcare has managed the exponential growth experienced at the clinic, the result of providing services to thousands of newly-insured lower-income residents of the San Fernando Valley. She will also discuss how community healthcare centers have moved from a non-traditional clinical alternative to being part of the system, and becoming the convener of communities, the voice of the underserved, and the advocates of health care for all.

The panel will be moderated by Harry Nelson, CEO, Nelson, Hardiman, LLC and other panelists include Dr. Harlan Levine, CEO, Medical Foundation, City of Hope, Ryan Reid, President, StaffGarden, and Bryan Lewitt, Senior Vice President, CBRE Healthcare. ACG 101 is one of the fastest-growing chapters of the Association for Corporate Growth, the premier international organization for professionals involved in corporate growth, corporate development and mergers and acquisitions. ACG 101 serves corporate executives and professionals in the West Valley-Ventura County-Santa Barbara areas.
